

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

FOR CONGRESS.

To the Democracy of the Ninth District: I am a candidate for Congress, subject to the action of the Democratic Party. I will not accept office until I have been elected. I will not accept office until I have been elected. I will not accept office until I have been elected.

FOR CONGRESS.

We are authorized to announce that HON. JAMES H. WALL is a candidate for Congress in the Ninth Congressional district at the November election, 1936, subject to the action of the Democratic Party.

FOR JUDGE OF THE CIRCUIT COURT.

We are authorized to announce that HON. A. E. COLE of Fleming County, is a candidate for re-election as Judge of the Circuit Court in the Judicial District of the August election, 1936, subject to the action of the Democratic Party by convention or otherwise.

FOR COMMONWEALTH ATTORNEY.

We are authorized to announce that Z. T. YOUNG, of Rowan County, is a candidate for Commonwealth's Attorney in this Judicial district, subject to the will of the Democratic Party.

We are authorized to announce that JAMES H. WALL is a candidate for the office of Commonwealth's Attorney, in the Fourteenth Judicial District, subject to the will of the Democratic Party.

JANUARY ELECTIONS, 1936.

FOR MAYOR.

We are authorized to announce that W. C. PAULKE is a candidate for Mayor of the City of Mayville, at the ensuing January election, 1936.

As the solicitation of many friends, I announce myself as a candidate for Mayor of the City of Mayville, at the ensuing January election, 1936. No money will be used by me in "trial" or campaign expenses. I elected, I pledge faithful performance of the duties of the office.

We are authorized to announce that MR. R. E. PEARCE, Jr., is a candidate for Mayor, at the ensuing January election, 1936.

FOR COUNCILMAN.

We are authorized to announce that JOHN THOMAS is a candidate for councilman from the Third Ward, at the ensuing January election, 1936.

We are authorized to announce that HUGH F. SHANNON is a candidate for Councilman from the Fourth Ward, at the ensuing January election, 1936.

We are authorized to announce that THOMAS J. CHENOWETH is a candidate for reelection to the office of Councilman from the Second Ward, at the January election, 1936.

We are authorized to announce that MR. T. LOWRY is a candidate for Councilman in the Fourth Ward, at the January election, 1936.

We are authorized to announce that Dr. W. MOORE is a candidate for Councilman in the Second Ward, at the January election, 1936.

FOR COLLECTOR AND TREASURER.

We are authorized to announce that H. B. BEWELL is a candidate for City Collector and Treasurer, at the ensuing January election, 1936.

We are authorized to announce that MR. R. H. LEACH is a candidate for City Collector and Treasurer, at the ensuing January election, 1936.

We are authorized to announce that MR. ROBERT A. CULBERTSON is a candidate for the office of Collector and Treasurer of the City of Mayville, at the ensuing January election, 1936.

FOR WHARFMASTER.

We are authorized to announce that MR. M. F. PETER is a candidate for election to the office of Wharfmaster, at the January election, 1936.

FOR MARSHAL.

We are authorized to announce that JAMES REDMOND is a candidate for re-election to the office of City Marshal, at the January election, 1936.

We are authorized to announce that JAMES REEFIN is a candidate for City Marshal at the January election, 1936.

We are authorized to announce that H. N. HANSON is a candidate for City Marshal at the ensuing January election, 1936.

FOR CITY CLERK.

We are authorized to announce that MR. R. E. TAYLOR is a candidate for reelection to the office of City Clerk, at the ensuing January election, 1936.

ASSASSIN.

We are authorized to announce that MR. JAMES K. LLOYD is a candidate for re-election to the office of City Assessor, at the ensuing January election, 1936.

S. J. DAUGHERTY.

—Designer and dealer in—

MONUMENTS, TABLETS, Headstones, etc. The largest stock of the latest designs. The best material and work offered in this section of the state, at reduced prices. Those wanting work in granite or marble are invited to call on us for estimates. Second street, Mayville.

WALL & WORTHINGTON.
J. G. WALL, JR.
R. L. WORTHINGTON

Attorneys and Counselors at Law
Will practice in all courts in Mason and adjoining counties and in the Superior Court and Court of Appeals. All collections given prompt attention. nov14:26

J. LANE & WORTHICK.
Contractors,
ARCHITECTS and BUILDERS

Plans and specifications furnished on reasonable terms and all work satisfactorily and promptly done. Office on Third street, between Wall and Sutton.

J. COBLE LINN.
BAKER AND CONFECTIONER.

ICE CREAM AND SODA WATER a specialty. Fresh bread and cake. Parties and Weddings served on short notice. No 32 Second street, Mayville.

T. J. CURLEY.
Sanitary Plumber,

GAS & STEAM FITTER.
Curley's new system of House Drainage and Ventilation. Bath rooms fitted up with hot and cold water a specialty. Also a large supply of

Iron, Lead and Stone Pipe,
Globe, Angle and Check Valves, water and steam gauges, Fittings, etc. Agents for the best Hose, Chandeliers, Brackets and Globes. Personal attention given to all orders. J. T. CURLEY, Second street, above Market, opposite Dana Borden's, Mayville, Ky.

SMITH'S KIDNEY TONIC—TRY IT.

NATIONAL GLEANINGS.

THE DOINGS OF A DAY IN THE HOUSE AND SENATE.

Committee on Rules—Jefferson's Manual Adopted—The House Adjourns Until Saturday—Maine estimates—Editorial Comments—National.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 10.—Immediately after reading of the journal, the speaker asked and received permission of the house to appoint the committees on rules, accounts, and enrolled bills.

Mr. Morrison, of Illinois, offered a resolution for reference to the committee on rules when appointed. The resolution proposed to continue in force the rules of the Forty-eighth congress, with modifications referred to in these dispatches, namely:

The distribution of the work of the appropriate committees and the other standing committees of the house. It leaves the committee with jurisdiction over the legislative and sundry civil bill; amends Rule 21 by striking out the clause which prohibits the introduction of a general appropriation bill or amendment thereto containing existing law in order, except such as are germane to the subject matter of the bill and shall retrench expenditures.

Mr. Springer then presented for immediate action the code of rules prepared by him, which has been already published.

Mr. Horner (Ala.) raised the point of order against Mr. Springer's proposition. A spirited debate on all parts of the question ensued. A large number of propositions were submitted. Mr. Hammond offered a resolution, which was adopted, providing that the house shall be governed by Jefferson's manual as modified by the parliamentarian practice.

The speaker appointed the committee on rules (the speaker, Messrs. Randall, Morrell, Reed and Hiram), and the whole matter was then referred to that committee, and the house, at 3:30 p. m., adjourned until Saturday.

Editorial Comments.
New York, Dec. 10.—The following are the editorial comments of the leading New York journals upon the president's message.

The Times says: "It is a document that has been issued from the executive so full of information and instruction for the people. The message is a masterpiece of conservative paper, and upon the whole is a masterpiece of conservatism."

The Sun says: "The result is a very long document full of information and of interest, written with admirable clearness and with some variety of style, and containing no pregnant thought of statesmanship, and no originality of thought, no new ideas to inspire discussion in congress and among the people."

The Times says: "The confidence of the country in President Coolidge's sound judgment in his practical good sense and in his firm grasp of great public questions will be completely increased by his message to congress."

The Tribune says: "The first message of the president is a creditable paper. On some points it is a masterpiece of wisdom, and on others it is a masterpiece of common sense. It is a masterpiece of statesmanship, and it is a masterpiece of common sense."

The Times says: "The confidence of the country in President Coolidge's sound judgment in his practical good sense and in his firm grasp of great public questions will be completely increased by his message to congress."

The Tribune says: "The first message of the president is a creditable paper. On some points it is a masterpiece of wisdom, and on others it is a masterpiece of common sense. It is a masterpiece of statesmanship, and it is a masterpiece of common sense."

The Times says: "The confidence of the country in President Coolidge's sound judgment in his practical good sense and in his firm grasp of great public questions will be completely increased by his message to congress."

The Tribune says: "The first message of the president is a creditable paper. On some points it is a masterpiece of wisdom, and on others it is a masterpiece of common sense. It is a masterpiece of statesmanship, and it is a masterpiece of common sense."

The Times says: "The confidence of the country in President Coolidge's sound judgment in his practical good sense and in his firm grasp of great public questions will be completely increased by his message to congress."

The Tribune says: "The first message of the president is a creditable paper. On some points it is a masterpiece of wisdom, and on others it is a masterpiece of common sense. It is a masterpiece of statesmanship, and it is a masterpiece of common sense."

The Times says: "The confidence of the country in President Coolidge's sound judgment in his practical good sense and in his firm grasp of great public questions will be completely increased by his message to congress."

The Tribune says: "The first message of the president is a creditable paper. On some points it is a masterpiece of wisdom, and on others it is a masterpiece of common sense. It is a masterpiece of statesmanship, and it is a masterpiece of common sense."

The Times says: "The confidence of the country in President Coolidge's sound judgment in his practical good sense and in his firm grasp of great public questions will be completely increased by his message to congress."

The Tribune says: "The first message of the president is a creditable paper. On some points it is a masterpiece of wisdom, and on others it is a masterpiece of common sense. It is a masterpiece of statesmanship, and it is a masterpiece of common sense."

The Times says: "The confidence of the country in President Coolidge's sound judgment in his practical good sense and in his firm grasp of great public questions will be completely increased by his message to congress."

The Tribune says: "The first message of the president is a creditable paper. On some points it is a masterpiece of wisdom, and on others it is a masterpiece of common sense. It is a masterpiece of statesmanship, and it is a masterpiece of common sense."

The Times says: "The confidence of the country in President Coolidge's sound judgment in his practical good sense and in his firm grasp of great public questions will be completely increased by his message to congress."

The Tribune says: "The first message of the president is a creditable paper. On some points it is a masterpiece of wisdom, and on others it is a masterpiece of common sense. It is a masterpiece of statesmanship, and it is a masterpiece of common sense."

The Times says: "The confidence of the country in President Coolidge's sound judgment in his practical good sense and in his firm grasp of great public questions will be completely increased by his message to congress."

The Tribune says: "The first message of the president is a creditable paper. On some points it is a masterpiece of wisdom, and on others it is a masterpiece of common sense. It is a masterpiece of statesmanship, and it is a masterpiece of common sense."

a rather difficult task to bring orders here from other cities, as they have heard of the strike in Cincinnati, and all being union men will refuse to come. Said a prominent shoe manufacturer:

"We can wait for men as long as we can stand it. Our orders are mostly for the future, and we are not in a hurry. Of course, we have some small orders which could fill. We are sure of our time, however, and that is that we shall not permit any union or non-union men, or any of our employes to manage our business. We have money invested in our business. It is our own business, and it seems to me we also ought to have a right to manage our own affairs. Do you suppose for a moment that I would let anyone dictate to me what price I should pay my employees? If they don't want to work for that price they can leave. We cannot afford to pay any more. I can tell you of all the manufacturers that none of us will change. We have made up our minds not to concede to their demands and we mean to stand by our decision."

RAILWAY READING.
General Freight Agent page on the Ohio River.

CINCINNATI, Dec. 10.—Mr. H. J. Page, president of the Ohio River Railway, was met by a reporter. Said the reporter:

"Mr. Page, what do you think of the Chicago and Ohio River pool? Do you think it will cause the end of the pool?"

"If I think it will," replied the general freight agent. "When the Chicago and Ohio River poolers first organized it was understood that it should continue for twenty years. Now, I am not certain whether that original clause remained or not. But it is generally understood that the pool shall continue all the time. Of course a line has the right to withdraw, and if a line does withdraw it virtually breaks up the pool. But it is not the case. At least I do not think so. A road has the right to let its claims before the commission. But if it does not, it is not a withdrawal. It is only a withdrawal if it is dealt with justly it can appeal to arbitration committee. Everybody has a fair show. The Chicago and Ohio River pool has done a heap of good work. It is no reason why it should be abolished. There is no doubt but that some roads will make some claims. The meeting is being held, and will very likely be settled amicably. The executive committee meets on next Thursday at Chicago. Let's wait for this result."

TERRIFIC CONFLICT.
A Huge Lion and Elephant in a Deadly Struggle—The Lion No King.

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 10.—The excitement at the winter quarters of Poughkeepsie menagerie, Philadelphia, Pa., was at its height today when a lion and an elephant fought a deadly battle in the ring. The lion, a huge animal, was the king of the beasts. The elephant, a huge animal, was the king of the beasts.

The lion, a huge animal, was the king of the beasts. The elephant, a huge animal, was the king of the beasts. The lion, a huge animal, was the king of the beasts. The elephant, a huge animal, was the king of the beasts.

The lion, a huge animal, was the king of the beasts. The elephant, a huge animal, was the king of the beasts. The lion, a huge animal, was the king of the beasts. The elephant, a huge animal, was the king of the beasts.

The lion, a huge animal, was the king of the beasts. The elephant, a huge animal, was the king of the beasts. The lion, a huge animal, was the king of the beasts. The elephant, a huge animal, was the king of the beasts.

The lion, a huge animal, was the king of the beasts. The elephant, a huge animal, was the king of the beasts. The lion, a huge animal, was the king of the beasts. The elephant, a huge animal, was the king of the beasts.

The lion, a huge animal, was the king of the beasts. The elephant, a huge animal, was the king of the beasts. The lion, a huge animal, was the king of the beasts. The elephant, a huge animal, was the king of the beasts.

The lion, a huge animal, was the king of the beasts. The elephant, a huge animal, was the king of the beasts. The lion, a huge animal, was the king of the beasts. The elephant, a huge animal, was the king of the beasts.

The lion, a huge animal, was the king of the beasts. The elephant, a huge animal, was the king of the beasts. The lion, a huge animal, was the king of the beasts. The elephant, a huge animal, was the king of the beasts.

The lion, a huge animal, was the king of the beasts. The elephant, a huge animal, was the king of the beasts. The lion, a huge animal, was the king of the beasts. The elephant, a huge animal, was the king of the beasts.

The lion, a huge animal, was the king of the beasts. The elephant, a huge animal, was the king of the beasts. The lion, a huge animal, was the king of the beasts. The elephant, a huge animal, was the king of the beasts.

The lion, a huge animal, was the king of the beasts. The elephant, a huge animal, was the king of the beasts. The lion, a huge animal, was the king of the beasts. The elephant, a huge animal, was the king of the beasts.

The lion, a huge animal, was the king of the beasts. The elephant, a huge animal, was the king of the beasts. The lion, a huge animal, was the king of the beasts. The elephant, a huge animal, was the king of the beasts.

The lion, a huge animal, was the king of the beasts. The elephant, a huge animal, was the king of the beasts. The lion, a huge animal, was the king of the beasts. The elephant, a huge animal, was the king of the beasts.

The lion, a huge animal, was the king of the beasts. The elephant, a huge animal, was the king of the beasts. The lion, a huge animal, was the king of the beasts. The elephant, a huge animal, was the king of the beasts.

The lion, a huge animal, was the king of the beasts. The elephant, a huge animal, was the king of the beasts. The lion, a huge animal, was the king of the beasts. The elephant, a huge animal, was the king of the beasts.

The lion, a huge animal, was the king of the beasts. The elephant, a huge animal, was the king of the beasts. The lion, a huge animal, was the king of the beasts. The elephant, a huge animal, was the king of the beasts.

The lion, a huge animal, was the king of the beasts. The elephant, a huge animal, was the king of the beasts. The lion, a huge animal, was the king of the beasts. The elephant, a huge animal, was the king of the beasts.

The lion, a huge animal, was the king of the beasts. The elephant, a huge animal, was the king of the beasts. The lion, a huge animal, was the king of the beasts. The elephant, a huge animal, was the king of the beasts.

The lion, a huge animal, was the king of the beasts. The elephant, a huge animal, was the king of the beasts. The lion, a huge animal, was the king of the beasts. The elephant, a huge animal, was the king of the beasts.

The lion, a huge animal, was the king of the beasts. The elephant, a huge animal, was the king of the beasts. The lion, a huge animal, was the king of the beasts. The elephant, a huge animal, was the king of the beasts.

The lion, a huge animal, was the king of the beasts. The elephant, a huge animal, was the king of the beasts. The lion, a huge animal, was the king of the beasts. The elephant, a huge animal, was the king of the beasts.

The lion, a huge animal, was the king of the beasts. The elephant, a huge animal, was the king of the beasts. The lion, a huge animal, was the king of the beasts. The elephant, a huge animal, was the king of the beasts.

The lion, a huge animal, was the king of the beasts. The elephant, a huge animal, was the king of the beasts. The lion, a huge animal, was the king of the beasts. The elephant, a huge animal, was the king of the beasts.

FROM THE OTHER SIDE.

ENGLAND STILL HAS A GOVERNMENT AND PARLIAMENT.

Mr. Salisbury Will Not Resign for the Present at Least—He Has a Better Cause. Her Majesty—The Limit of Concession—General Foreign Notes.

LONDON, Dec. 10.—The tension of public feeling which has been caused by the political activities of the past three weeks has culminated in a report that Lord Salisbury and his colleagues of the cabinet had resigned, thus leaving the country without a government or parliament. The report was untrue, and it was not even probable that Lord Salisbury would take such action as yet for the following reasons:

He has persuaded himself that an alliance with Parnell would estrange from the Tory party, all the Orangemen and many moderate British supporters. Thus he would be left without a majority. Therefore he believes that a better paying game is to put no obstacle in the way of the pending intrigue between the Radicals and the Parnellites, to wait until the latter have carried a motion of want of confidence in his government and then to expose the intrigues and appeal to the country on an anti-irish basis.

He has persuaded himself that an alliance with Parnell would estrange from the Tory party, all the Orangemen and many moderate British supporters. Thus he would be left without a majority. Therefore he believes that a better paying game is to put no obstacle in the way of the pending intrigue between the Radicals and the Parnellites, to wait until the latter have carried a motion of want of confidence in his government and then to expose the intrigues and appeal to the country on an anti-irish basis.

He has persuaded himself that an alliance with Parnell would estrange from the Tory party, all the Orangemen and many moderate British supporters. Thus he would be left without a majority. Therefore he believes that a better paying game is to put no obstacle in the way of the pending intrigue between the Radicals and the Parnellites, to wait until the latter have carried a motion of want of confidence in his government and then to expose the intrigues and appeal to the country on an anti-irish basis.

He has persuaded himself that an alliance with Parnell would estrange from the Tory party, all the Orangemen and many moderate British supporters. Thus he would be left without a majority. Therefore he believes that a better paying game is to put no obstacle in the way of the pending intrigue between the Radicals and the Parnellites, to wait until the latter have carried a motion of want of confidence in his government and then to expose the intrigues and appeal to the country on an anti-irish basis.

He has persuaded himself that an alliance with Parnell would estrange from the Tory party, all the Orangemen and many moderate British supporters. Thus he would be left without a majority. Therefore he believes that a better paying game is to put no obstacle in the way of the pending intrigue between the Radicals and the Parnellites, to wait until the latter have carried a motion of want of confidence in his government and then to expose the intrigues and appeal to the country on an anti-irish basis.

He has persuaded himself that an alliance with Parnell would estrange from the Tory party, all the Orangemen and many moderate British supporters. Thus he would be left without a majority. Therefore he believes that a better paying game is to put no obstacle in the way of the pending intrigue between the Radicals and the Parnellites, to wait until the latter have carried a motion of want of confidence in his government and then to expose the intrigues and appeal to the country on an anti-irish basis.

He has persuaded himself that an alliance with Parnell would estrange from the Tory party, all the Orangemen and many moderate British supporters. Thus he would be left without a majority. Therefore he believes that a better paying game is to put no obstacle in the way of the pending intrigue between the Radicals and the Parnellites, to wait until the latter have carried a motion of want of confidence in his government and then to expose the intrigues and appeal to the country on an anti-irish basis.

He has persuaded himself that an alliance with Parnell would estrange from the Tory party, all the Orangemen and many moderate British supporters. Thus he would be left without a majority. Therefore he believes that a better paying game is to put no obstacle in the way of the pending intrigue between the Radicals and the Parnellites, to wait until the latter have carried a motion of want of confidence in his government and then to expose the intrigues and appeal to the country on an anti-irish basis.

He has persuaded himself that an alliance with Parnell would estrange from the Tory party, all the Orangemen and many moderate British supporters. Thus he would be left without a majority. Therefore he believes that a better paying game is to put no obstacle in the way of the pending intrigue between the Radicals and the Parnellites, to wait until the latter have carried a motion of want of confidence in his government and then to expose the intrigues and appeal to the country on an anti-irish basis.

He has persuaded himself that an alliance with Parnell would estrange from the Tory party, all the Orangemen and many moderate British supporters. Thus he would be left without a majority. Therefore he believes that a better paying game is to put no obstacle in the way of the pending intrigue between the Radicals and the Parnellites, to wait until the latter have carried a motion of want of confidence in his government and then to expose the intrigues and appeal to the country on an anti-irish basis.

He has persuaded himself that an alliance with Parnell would estrange from the Tory party, all the Orangemen and many moderate British supporters. Thus he would be left without a majority. Therefore he believes that a better paying game is to put no obstacle in the way of the pending intrigue between the Radicals and the Parnellites, to wait until the latter have carried a motion of want of confidence in his government and then to expose the intrigues and appeal to the country on an anti-irish basis.

He has persuaded himself that an alliance with Parnell would estrange from the Tory party, all the Orangemen and many moderate British supporters. Thus he would be left without a majority. Therefore he believes that a better paying game is to put no obstacle in the way of the pending intrigue between the Radicals and the Parnellites, to wait until the latter have carried a motion of want of confidence in his government and then to expose the intrigues and appeal to the country on an anti-irish basis.

He has persuaded himself that an alliance with Parnell would estrange from the Tory party, all the Orangemen and many moderate British supporters. Thus he would be left without a majority. Therefore he believes that a better paying game is to put no obstacle in the way of the pending intrigue between the Radicals and the Parnellites, to wait until the latter have carried a motion of want of confidence in his government and then to expose the intrigues and appeal to the country on an anti-irish basis.

He has persuaded himself that an alliance with Parnell would estrange from the Tory party, all the Orangemen and many moderate British supporters. Thus he would be left without a majority. Therefore he believes that a better paying game is to put no obstacle in the way of the pending intrigue between the Radicals and the Parnellites, to wait until the latter have carried a motion of want of confidence in his government and then to expose the intrigues and appeal to the country on an anti-irish basis.

He has persuaded himself that an alliance with Parnell would estrange from the Tory party, all the Orangemen and many moderate British supporters. Thus he would be left without a majority. Therefore he believes that a better paying game is to put no obstacle in the way of the pending intrigue between the Radicals and the Parnellites, to wait until the latter have carried a motion of want of confidence in his government and then to expose the intrigues and appeal to the country on an anti-irish basis.

He has persuaded himself that an alliance with Parnell would estrange from the Tory party, all the Orangemen and many moderate British supporters. Thus he would be left without a majority. Therefore he believes that a better paying game is to put no obstacle in the way of the pending intrigue between the Radicals and the Parnellites, to wait until the latter have carried a motion of want of confidence in his government and then to expose the intrigues and appeal to the country on an anti-irish basis.

He has persuaded himself that an alliance with Parnell would estrange from the Tory party, all the Orangemen and many moderate British supporters. Thus he would be left without a majority. Therefore he believes that a better paying game is to put no obstacle in the way of the pending intrigue between the Radicals and the Parnellites, to wait until the latter have carried a motion of want of confidence in his government and then to expose the intrigues and appeal to the country on an anti-irish basis.

He has persuaded himself that an alliance with Parnell would estrange from the Tory party, all the Orangemen and many moderate British supporters. Thus he would be left without a majority. Therefore he believes that a better paying game is to put no obstacle in the way of the pending intrigue between the Radicals and the Parnellites, to wait until the latter have carried a motion of want of confidence in his government and then to expose the intrigues and appeal to the country on an anti-irish basis.

He has persuaded himself that an alliance with Parnell would estrange from the Tory party, all the Orangemen and many moderate British supporters. Thus he would be left without a majority. Therefore he believes that a better paying game is to put no obstacle in the way of the pending intrigue between the Radicals and the Parnellites, to wait until the latter have carried a motion of want of confidence in his government and then to expose the intrigues and appeal to the country on an anti-irish basis.

He has persuaded himself that an alliance with Parnell would estrange from the Tory party, all the Orangemen and many moderate British supporters. Thus he would be left without a majority. Therefore he believes that a better paying game is to put no obstacle in the way of the pending intrigue between the Radicals and the Parnellites, to wait until the latter have carried a motion of want of confidence in his government and then to expose the intrigues and appeal to the country on an anti-irish basis.

He has persuaded himself that an alliance with Parnell would estrange from the Tory party, all the Orangemen and many moderate British supporters. Thus he would be left without a majority. Therefore he believes that a better paying game is to put no obstacle in the way of the pending intrigue between the Radicals and the Parnellites, to wait until the latter have carried a motion of want of confidence in his government and then to expose the intrigues and appeal to the country on an anti-irish basis.

He has persuaded himself that an alliance with Parnell would estrange from the Tory party, all the Orangemen and many moderate British supporters. Thus he would be left without a majority. Therefore he believes that a better paying game is to put no obstacle in the way of the pending intrigue between the Radicals and the Parnellites, to wait until the latter have carried a motion of want of confidence in his government and then to expose the intrigues and appeal to the country on an anti-irish basis.

He has persuaded himself that an alliance with Parnell would estrange from the Tory party, all the Orangemen and many moderate British supporters. Thus he would be left without a majority. Therefore he believes that a better paying game is to put no obstacle in the way of the pending intrigue between the Radicals and the Parnellites, to wait until the latter have carried a motion of want of confidence in his government and then to expose the intrigues and appeal to the country on an anti-irish basis.

He has persuaded himself that an alliance with Parnell would estrange from the Tory party, all the Orangemen and many moderate British supporters. Thus he would be left without a majority. Therefore he believes that a better paying game is to put no obstacle in the way of the pending intrigue between the Radicals and the Parnellites, to wait until the latter have carried a motion of want of confidence in his government and then to expose the intrigues and appeal to the country on an anti-irish basis.

He has persuaded himself that an alliance with Parnell would estrange from the Tory party, all the Orangemen and many moderate British supporters. Thus he would be left without a majority. Therefore he believes that a better paying game is to put no obstacle in the way of the pending intrigue between the Radicals and the Parnellites, to wait until the latter have carried a motion of want of confidence in his government and then to expose the intrigues and appeal to the country on an anti-irish basis.

He has persuaded himself that an alliance with Parnell would estrange from the Tory party, all the Orangemen and many moderate British supporters. Thus he would be left without a majority. Therefore he believes that a better paying game is to put no obstacle in the way of the pending intrigue between the Radicals and the Parnellites, to wait until the latter have carried a motion of want of confidence in his government and then to expose the intrigues and appeal to the country on an anti-irish basis.

Bulk Oysters, per quart, 30 cents. One-half pound of crackers given with each can of Oysters. Prices the lowest, quality the best.
Salmon, Cranberries, &c., received daily.